UNIVERSITY OF MAINE AT MACHIAS

Cover photo: Jeff Small

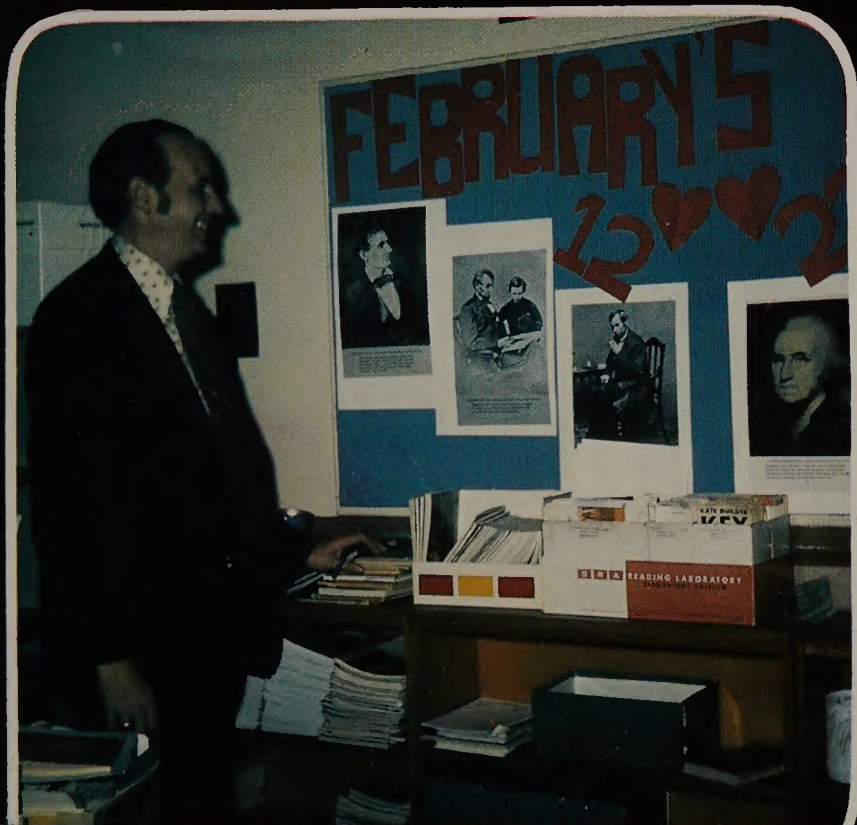

On our campus, it isn't a rare sight to see Mr. Robinson walking the Campus School children to lunch at the cafeteria, watching over the playground, joining, as well as officiating an occasional ball game, or lending a helping hand to a student teacher. As a teacher both in the Campus School and in the Social Studies Method courses, he offers the same warm smile to all. Mr. Robinson exemplifies the professional person that we all strive to become.

We, the Washingtonia Staff, appreciate your long hours of devotion to the teaching profession... your friendly personality... your energy and enthusiasm... your dedication to the Campus School and to the students of UMM...

We acknowledge your service by dedicating this 1975 yearbook to you, Mr. William Robinson!

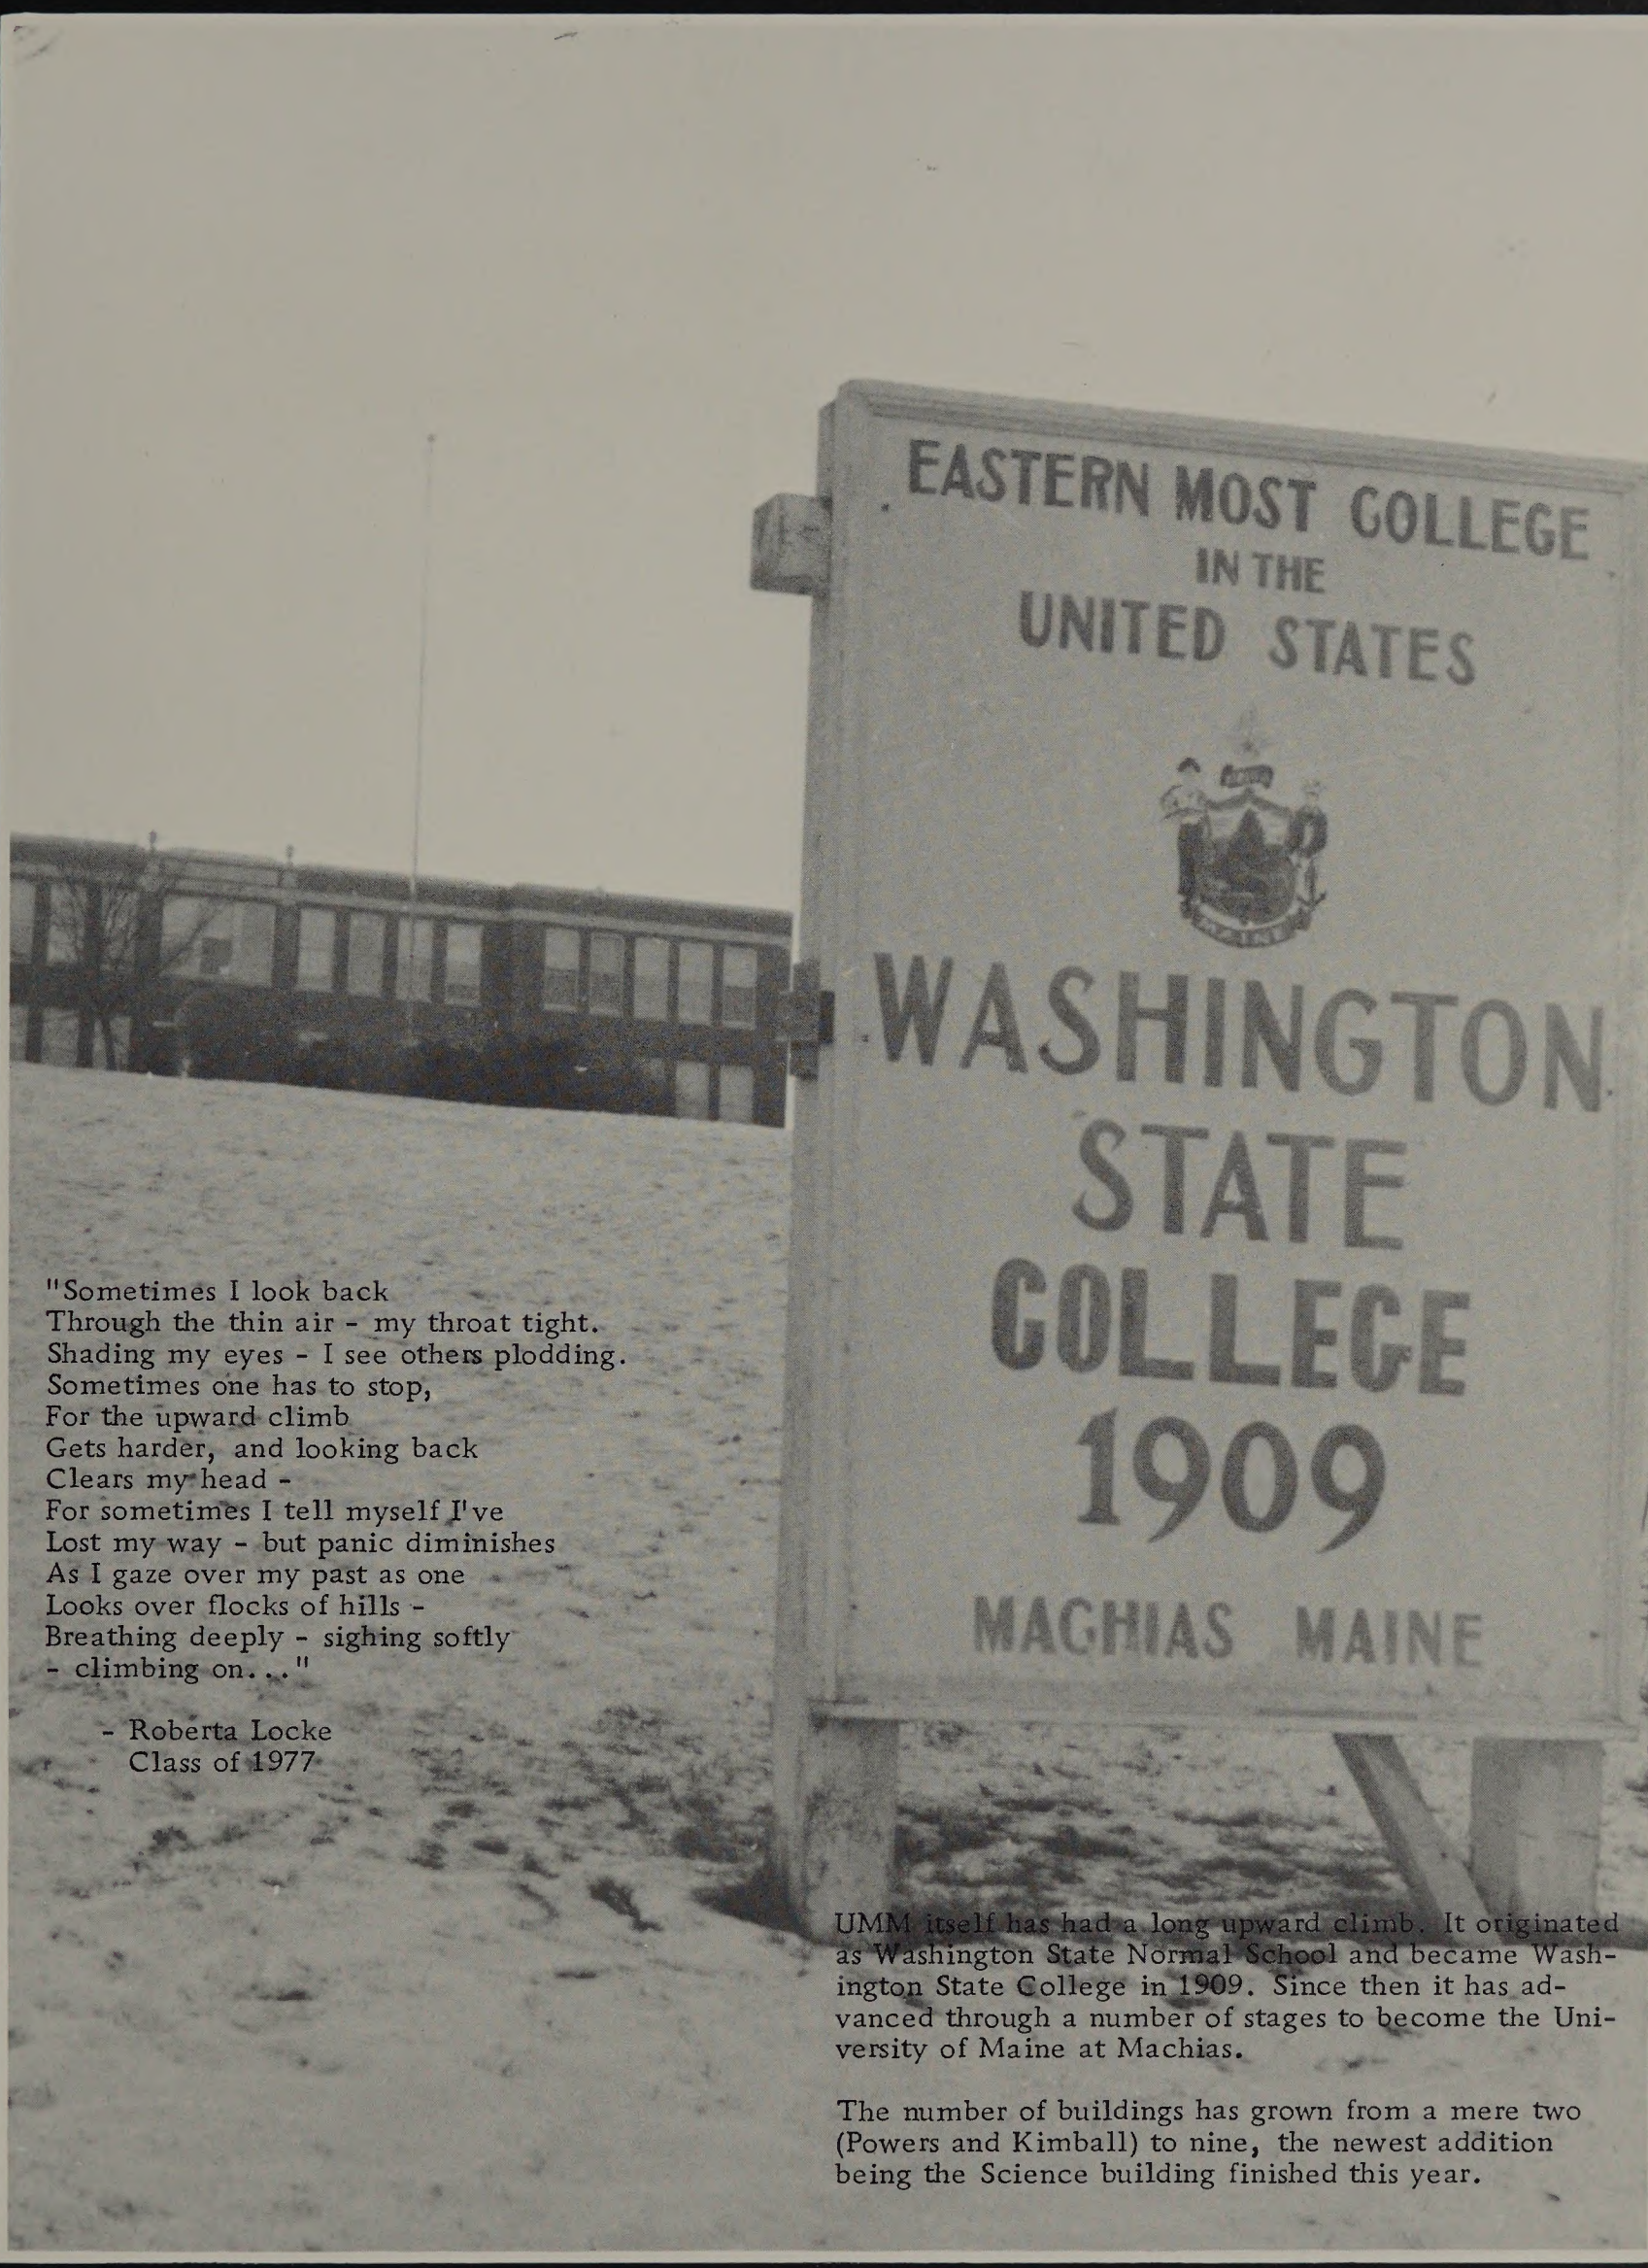

When I Remember UMM And The Hill — IT'S A LONG, UPWARD CLIMB

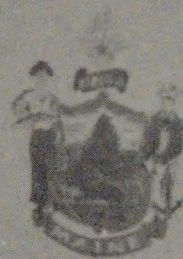

If life were a level path instead of an upward climb, striving would be senseless, and we would stumble over goals in our haste.

- Roberta Locke
Class of 1977

MACHIAS MAINE

"Sometimes I look back
Through the thin air - my throat tight.
Shading my eyes - I see others plodding.
Sometimes one has to stop,
For the upward climb
Gets harder, and looking back
Clears my head -
For sometimes I tell myself I've
Lost my way - but panic diminishes
As I gaze over my past as one
Looks over flocks of hills -
Breathing deeply - sighing softly
- climbing on..."

- Roberta Locke
Class of 1977

UMM itself has had a long upward climb. It originated as Washington State Normal School and became Washington State College in 1909. Since then it has advanced through a number of stages to become the University of Maine at Machias.

The number of buildings has grown from a mere two (Powers and Kimball) to nine, the newest addition being the Science building finished this year.

Coach Plunkett and her team had a very successful season this year, finishing fourth in the state. Machias also had the honor of being the first small college in the state to host a state tournament. At the state championship tournament many fans showed up to cheer them on. Volleyball has come a long way at UMM and better things may be in store! The Clipperettes journeyed far to play their matches, ranging from UMPI and UMFK to UMPCO.

Good luck to next year's team!

The days are starting to get sunny and warm now, for spring has finally arrived. It's a late spring this year but no one seems to have noticed, for the year has passed so quickly that it doesn't seem possible that commencement is only a few weeks away. Often times the days in passing dragged, but as we stand here now and look back, we're overwhelmed by the speed of time. How quickly this school year has passed!

It's a time that will never be relived-except in the recesses of our memories. In looking back we can't help but admit-it's been a good year. Many things have happened during the passage of the hours that eventually made up 1975. We have added to our memories both good and bad experiences of the year. But we have grown and even though the year has ended, we won't stop growing, for the upward climb is still ahead. We've been traveling upward all year and now looking back, find it was only a minute incline-a slight portion of the mountain still ahead. Many times we've felt the climb too steep, but we've conquered it and found inward strength in the effort. And as we climb, we leave markers-evidence of the journey.

In our yearbook this year, we've tried to capture some of the experiences and "mind pictures" that have helped construct the marker for the year 1974-1975. Someday we hope in looking back you will be able to say, "I passed that way once and it was good." Our yearbook is dedicated to a man who symbolizes the goals towards which many strive-that of becoming a teacher. But more than this, Mr. Robinson, his personality, his attitudes, and his dedication shows us that the climb goes on-a lesson in itself.

To the graduates of 1975, we wish you success and happiness, and we encourage each one to keep climbing and growing. A man once said-the only evidence of life is growth. To you all- HAVE A GOOD LIFE.

CULTURAL AFFAIRS

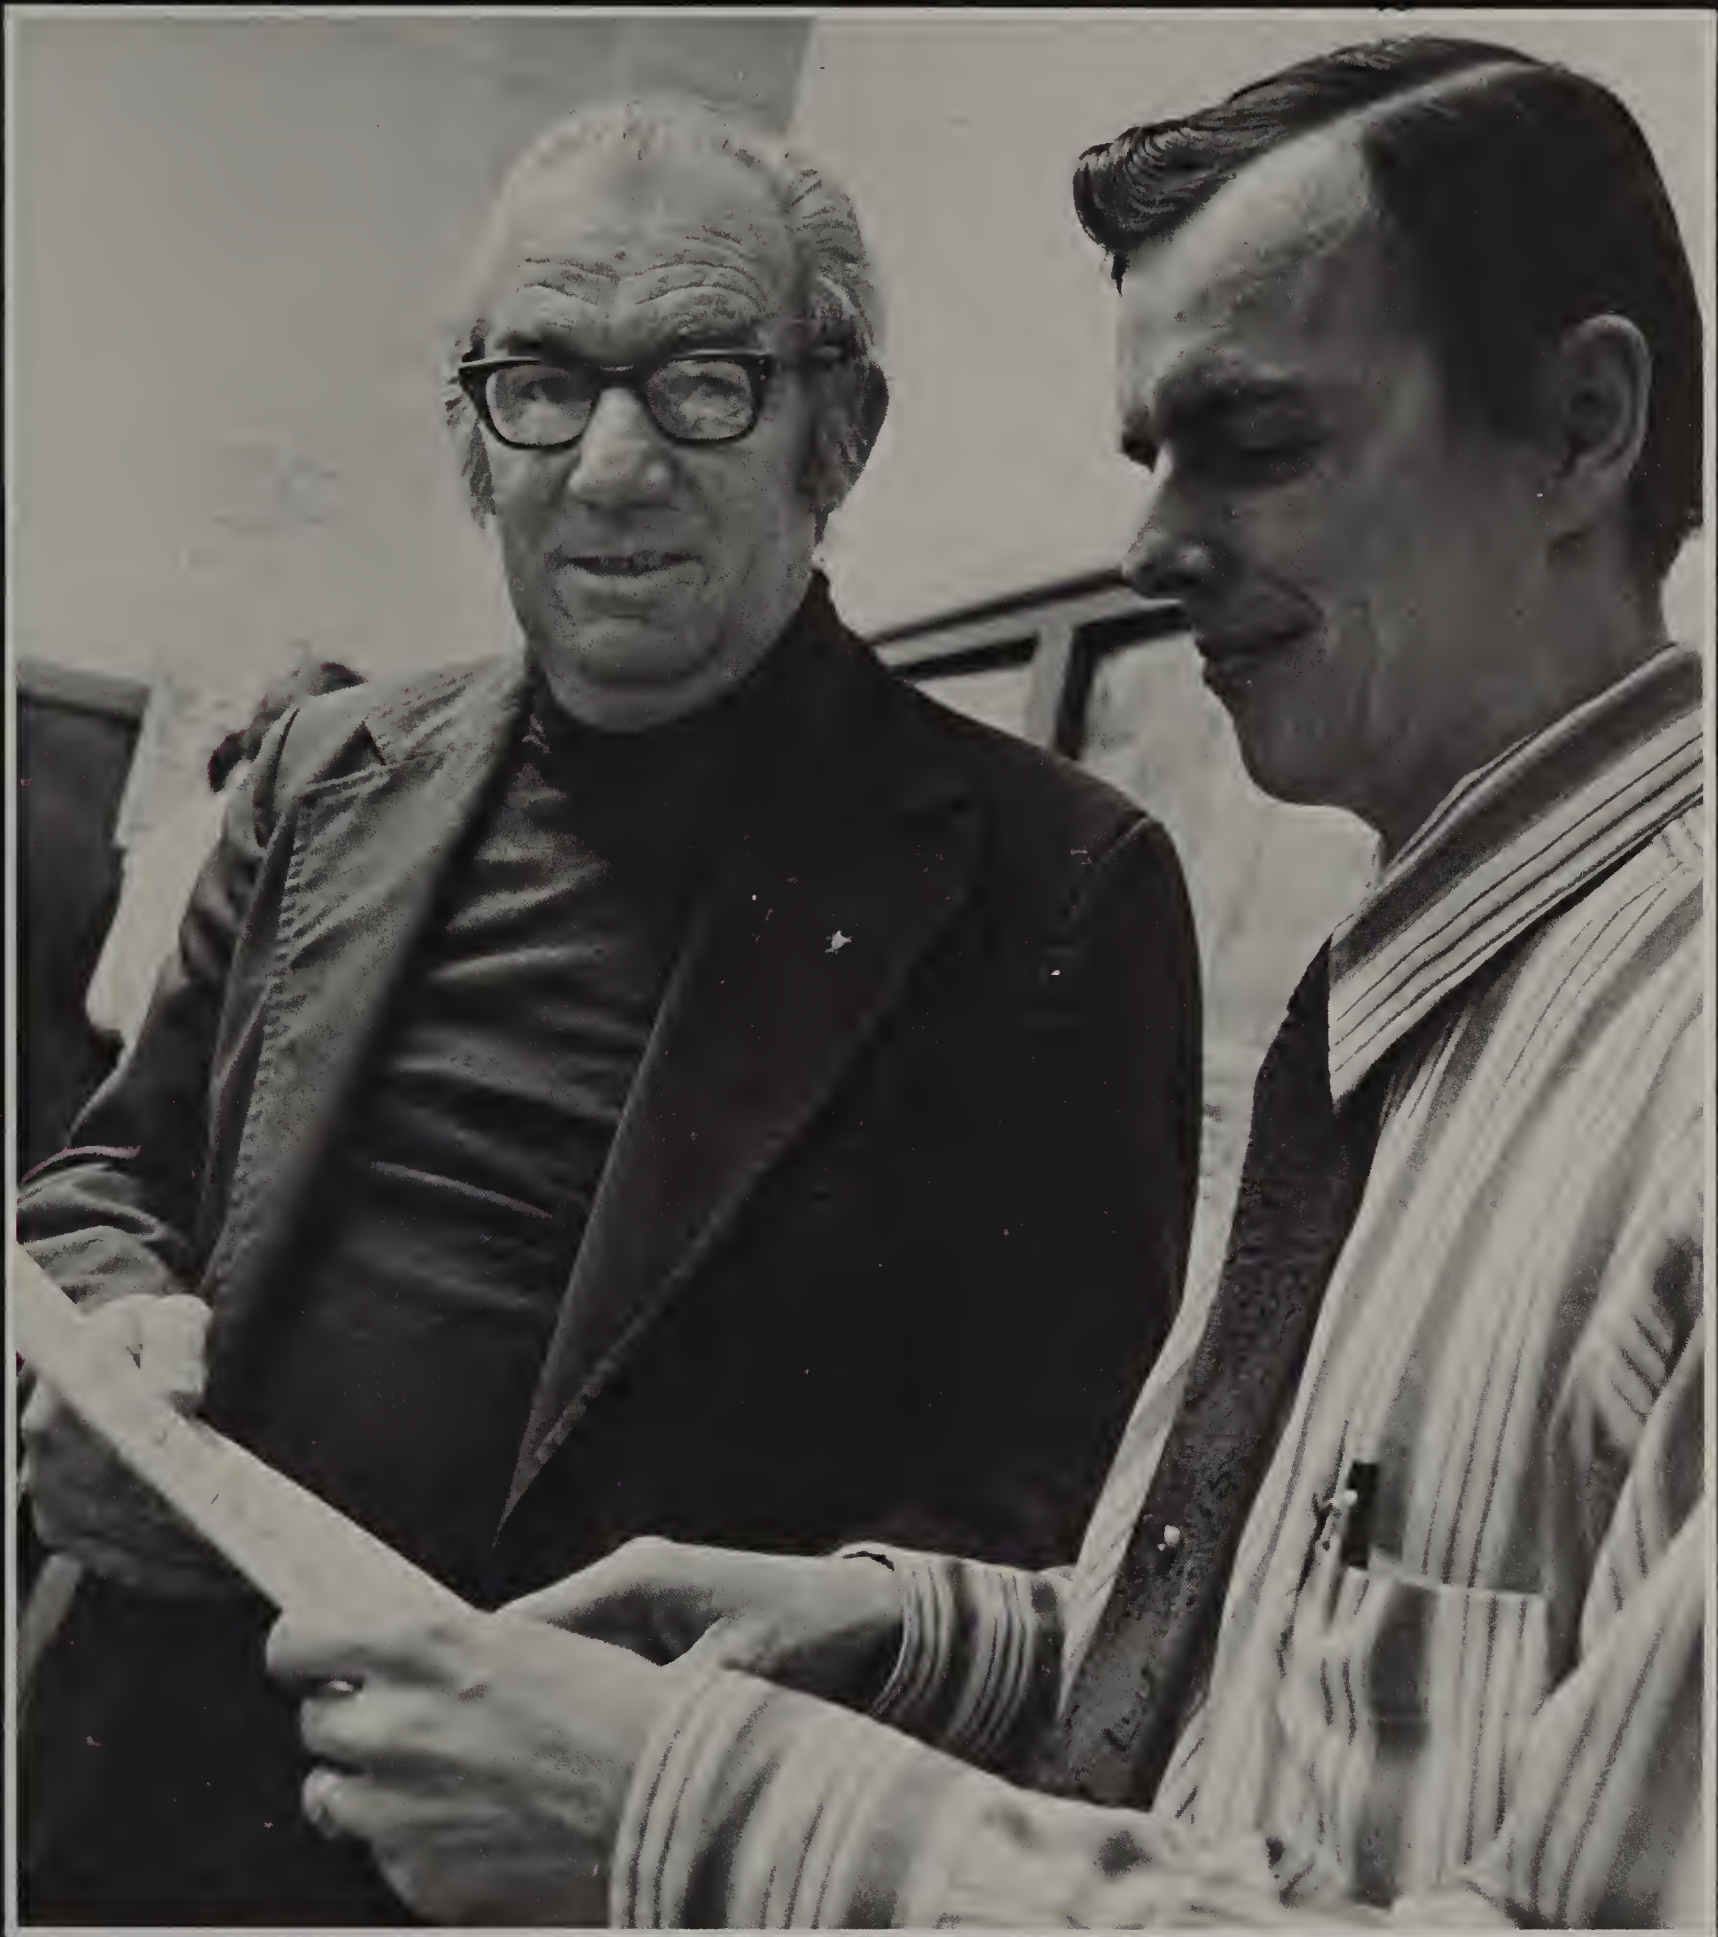

Courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. John Marin, Jr.
and the University of Maine at Machias.

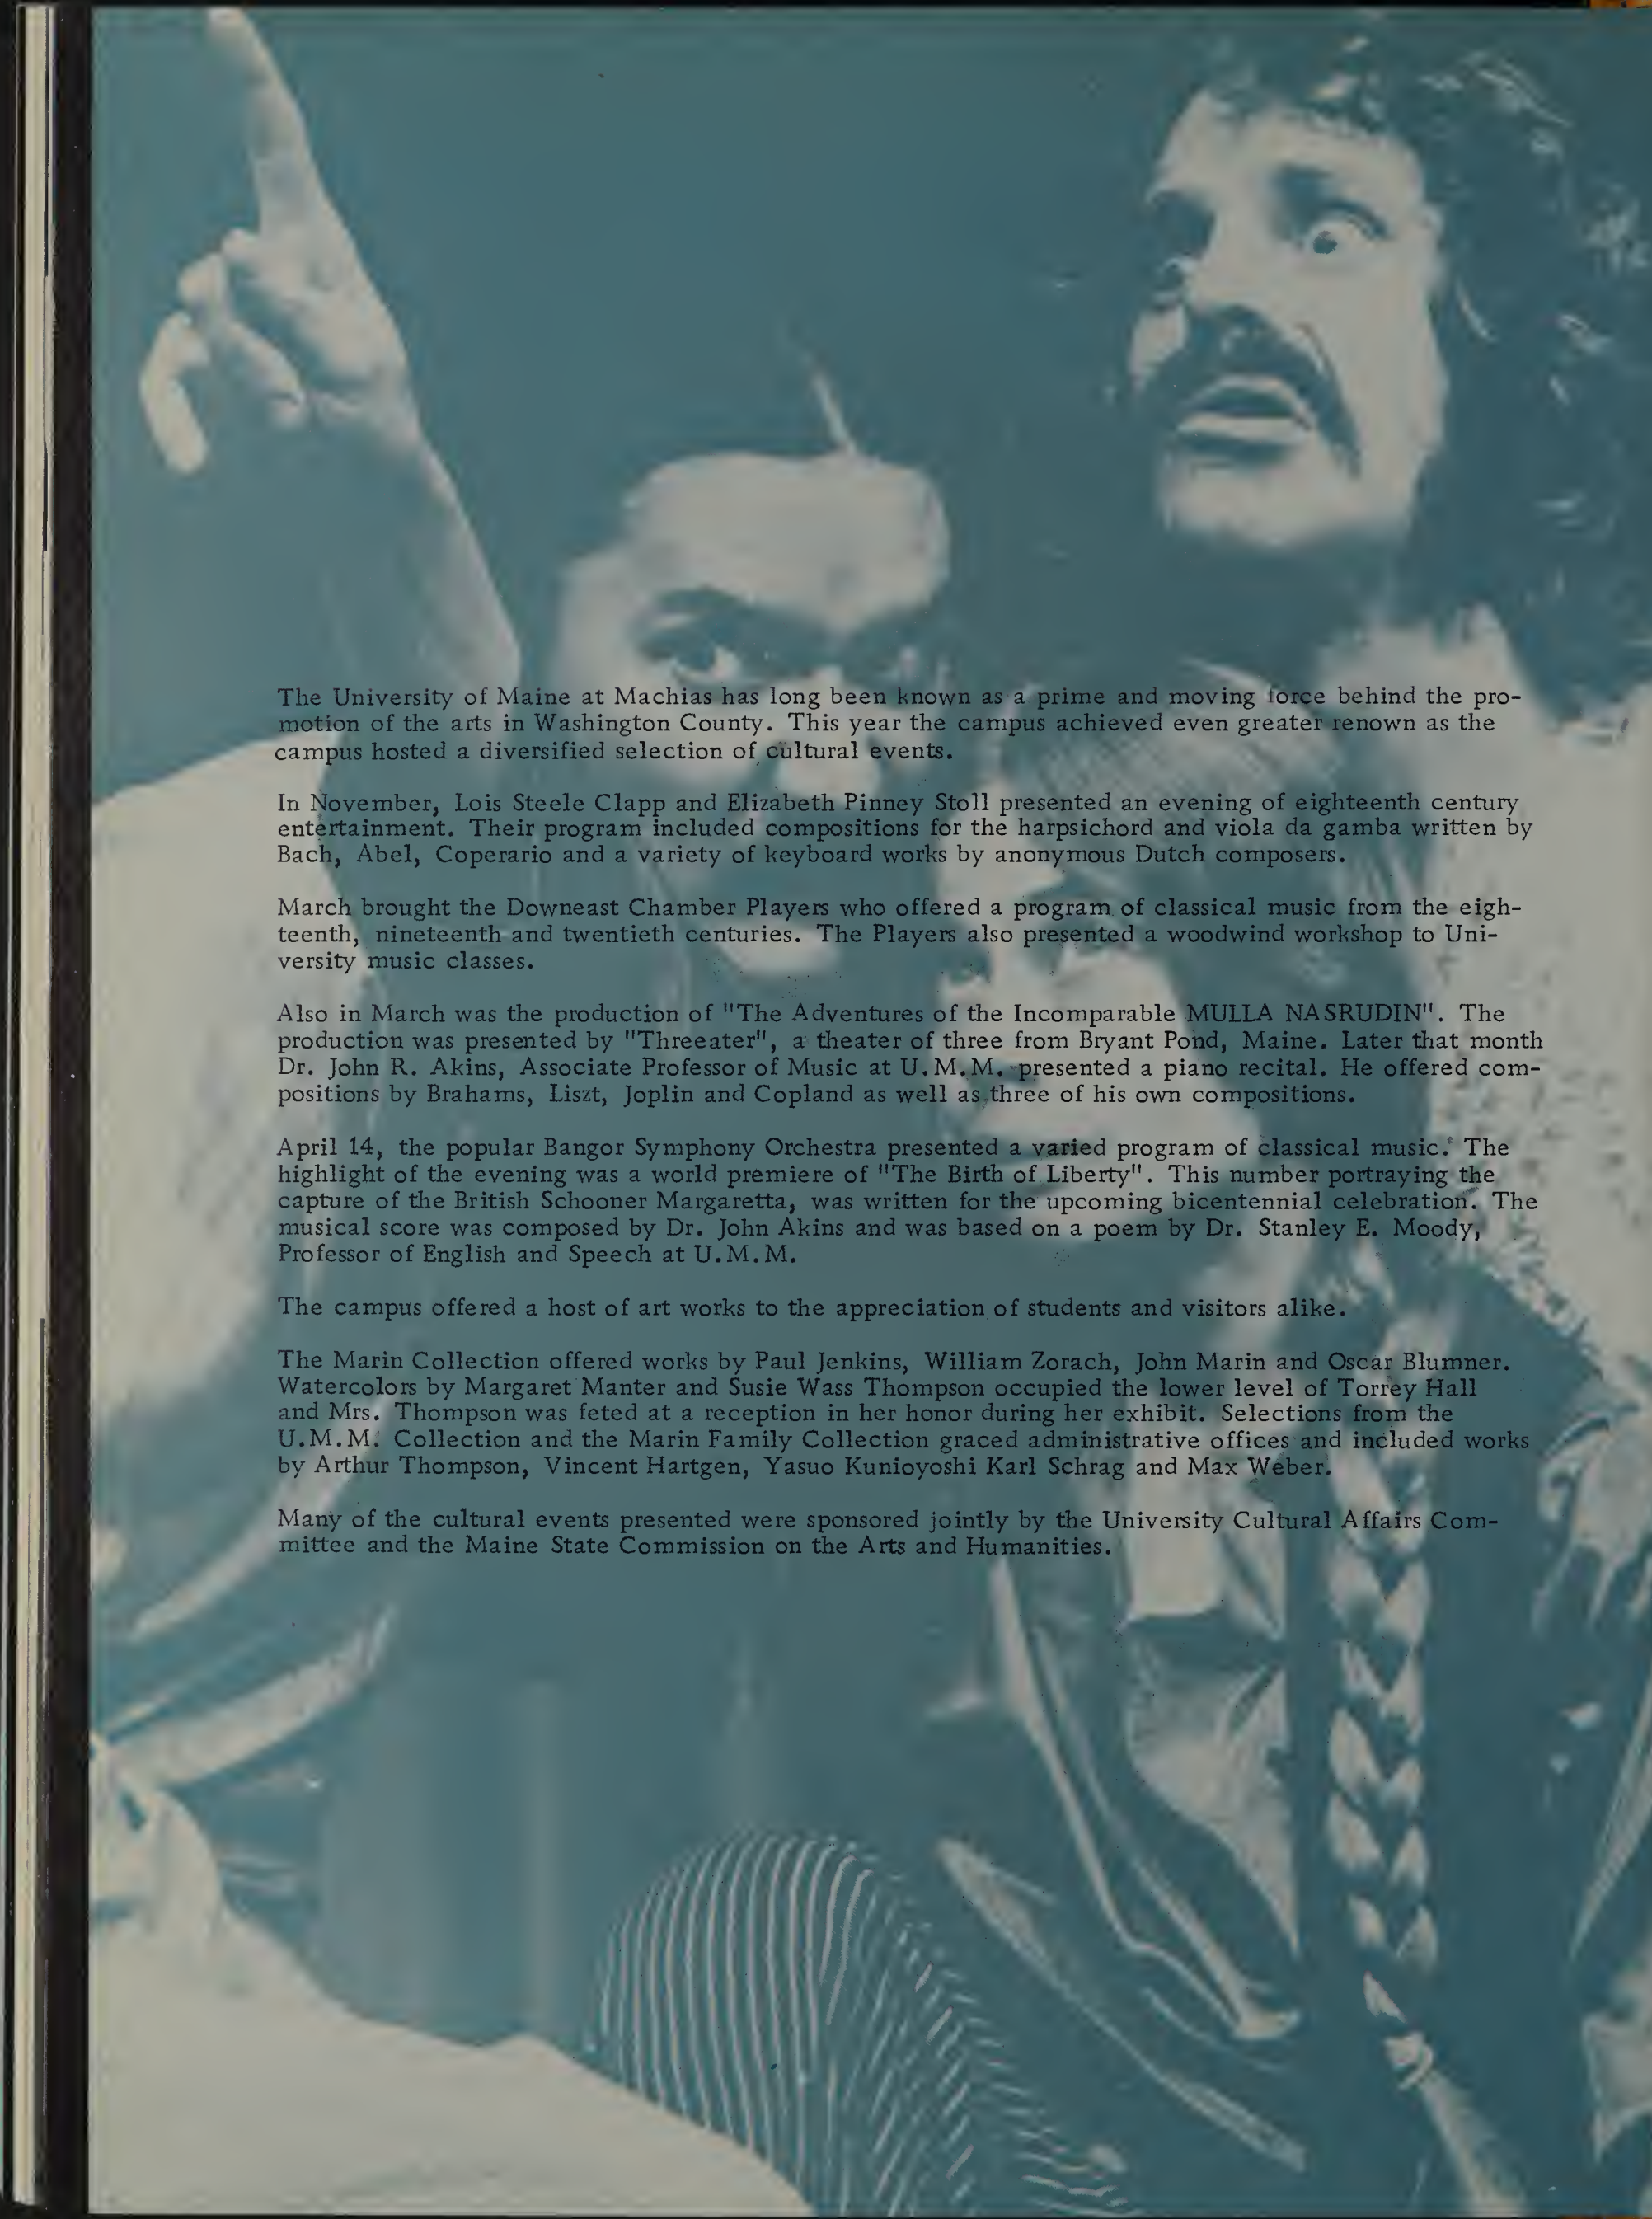

Lois Steele Clapp, Harpsichord, and Elizabeth Stoll, Viola da Gamba.

On April 14, 1975, the Bangor Symphony Orchestra presented a world premier of "The Birth Of Liberty," a musical portrayal of the Battle of the Margarett. The musical score was composed by Dr. John Akins and was based on a poem by Dr. Stanley E. Moody, Professor of English and Speech at U.M.M.

The University of Maine at Machias has long been known as a prime and moving force behind the promotion of the arts in Washington County. This year the campus achieved even greater renown as the campus hosted a diversified selection of cultural events.

In November, Lois Steele Clapp and Elizabeth Pinney Stoll presented an evening of eighteenth century entertainment. Their program included compositions for the harpsichord and viola da gamba written by Bach, Abel, Coperario and a variety of keyboard works by anonymous Dutch composers.

March brought the Downeast Chamber Players who offered a program of classical music from the eighteenth, nineteenth and twentieth centuries. The Players also presented a woodwind workshop to University music classes.

Also in March was the production of "The Adventures of the Incomparable MULLA NASRUDIN". The production was presented by "Threeter", a theater of three from Bryant Pond, Maine. Later that month Dr. John R. Akins, Associate Professor of Music at U.M.M. presented a piano recital. He offered compositions by Brahms, Liszt, Joplin and Copland as well as three of his own compositions.

April 14, the popular Bangor Symphony Orchestra presented a varied program of classical music. The highlight of the evening was a world premiere of "The Birth of Liberty". This number portraying the capture of the British Schooner Margareta, was written for the upcoming bicentennial celebration. The musical score was composed by Dr. John Akins and was based on a poem by Dr. Stanley E. Moody, Professor of English and Speech at U.M.M.

The campus offered a host of art works to the appreciation of students and visitors alike.

The Marin Collection offered works by Paul Jenkins, William Zorach, John Marin and Oscar Blunner. Watercolors by Margaret Manter and Susie Wass Thompson occupied the lower level of Torrey Hall and Mrs. Thompson was feted at a reception in her honor during her exhibit. Selections from the U.M.M. Collection and the Marin Family Collection graced administrative offices and included works by Arthur Thompson, Vincent Hartgen, Yasuo Kuniyoshi Karl Schrag and Max Weber.

Many of the cultural events presented were sponsored jointly by the University Cultural Affairs Committee and the Maine State Commission on the Arts and Humanities.

KAPPA DELTA PHI — a tradition on the Machias campus since 1931. There are nineteen Kappa Chapters throughout New England. Eta Chapter sponsors many social and charitable events throughout the year, living up to their motto, "MAY THE SPIRIT NEVER DIE". The brothers of Kappa Delta Phi invite all UMM men to share the Kappa Tradition — it's a vital part of campus life!
